

Services

Access our expertise in survey design and research. We can help with all or part of the survey process, from design to distribution, to analysis and reporting. We are happy to work with third parties to help you complete your projects.

Survey Services

A well designed questionnaire is essential to the survey process. Our survey experts can help with survey design, branding, translations, and complex functionality.

Data Management

Data management support for researchers includes data entry and collection, paper survey management and scanning, as well as full online survey hosting.

Analysis and Reporting

Snap Survey Software has powerful reporting and analysis capabilities. The research team at Snap are experts in harnessing this power to deliver high quality and insightful reports.

Help, Training, and Support

Get help with your Snap survey. Our survey experts offer in-depth technical support and training to help you get the most out of Snap Survey Software.

Respondent Panels

Gain quick and easy market insight with access to 7 million participants from around the world. Take part in paid online surveys.

Outsourcing

Utilize our expertise to deliver your survey project. We provide research services to a wide range of clients in diverse market sectors.