

Healthcare Research

The functionality, versatility, and ease of use of Snap Survey Software make it the ideal survey software solution for the healthcare industry. Snap Surveys' products and services assist public and private healthcare providers and industry researchers to securely gather health-related data, and produce actionable analysis with ease of report distribution to both clients and stakeholders.

Healthcare Surveys

Snap Surveys protects the privacy and security of all electronic personal health information. As an organization, Snap Surveys is ISO/IEC 27001 certified ensuring our information security management systems adhere to the most stringent security and privacy controls. ISO 27001 assists organizations in the deployment of an information security management system that is integrated, comprehensive, and incorporates globally-recognized best practices. For example, this global standard has assisted organizations in the US comply with such regulatory acts as the Health Insurance Portability and Availability Act (HIPAA).

- Patient Satisfaction Surveys
- Physician & Administrative Evaluations
- Training & Development Assessments
- Hospital Performance Evaluations
- Health Assessments
- Healthcare Coverage Assessments
- Public Health Research Studies
- Facilities planning

Flexible Survey Software

Design professional surveys

Create dynamic and engaging surveys in any language, which deliver an enjoyable and personalized experience for each respondent.

Reach anyone, anywhere, with any mode

Gather feedback at hospitals, clinics, waiting areas, or from at-home patients with online, paper, mobile, kiosk, or phone surveys. Our continuous Mobile Anywhere interviewing technology enables uninterrupted interviewing, even in areas with Wi-Fi black spots.

Share analysis and reports

Share analysis and reports in any language with clients and stakeholders, offline or online, with real-time updates. Produce personalized Smart Reports for the entire organization, specific departments, or individuals, providing viewers with results customized to their role within the organization including internal, external, or historical benchmarks.